

Carol Bode

Carol is a commercially astute Organisation Development Business Professional with a solid record of achievement in the commercial and public sector having held senior positions, up to and including Board Director level, in retail, customer services, financial services and the National Health Service for over 25 years. Major organisations she has worked for include Sainsbury's, the Burton Group, The Automobile Association, Scott Wilson, GMAC-RFC and since 2006 Hampshire Partnership NHS Foundation Trust.

Carol's core skills, enthusiasm and experience lie in:

- Chairing Boards
- Facilitating top teams to establish and articulate a clear vision and values
- Strategic planning
- Leadership, team and personal effectiveness
- Organisation and management development
- Cultural development
- Change management
- Business Programme management

Carol demonstrates the ability to combine strategic vision and pragmatic realism to achieve results and has proved to be challenging and a key influencer at Board level.

Carol currently holds the positions of:

- Non Executive Chairman of the Hampshire Partnership NHS Foundation Trust
- Governor of Costello Technology College in Basingstoke
- Serving magistrate for Hampshire North West Bench
- Owner/sole trader of PICTURE THIS ONE- a Family, Wedding and Event Photography business

Carol moved to Hampshire in 1975 when she studied for a BSc (Hons) in Physiology and Biochemistry at the University of Southampton obtained in 1978. She moved to Basingstoke (Hampshire) in 1979 where she still lives today with her partner and two sons aged 17 and 14 years.